8 DANIEL DOW,
9
10 Plaintiff,
11 v.
12 FEDERAL NATIONAL MORTGAGE
ASSOCIATIONS, et al.,
13 Defendants.

CASE NO. C16-5812-RBL

ORDER DENYING MOTION AND
REFERRING IT TO CHIEF JUDGE

DKT. #21, 25

14 THIS MATTER is before the Court on Plaintiff Daniel Dow's Motion for Recusal. [Dkt.
15 ##21, 25]. In a letter to the Ninth Circuit, forwarded to the District Court, Dow asks for Judge
16 Leighton's recusal. He argues Judge Leighton is prejudiced against him because (1) Judge
17 Leighton did not cite to a Gonzaga Law Review article when granting Partial-Defendants'
18 motion to dismiss [Dkt. #17], and (2) admitted to having a conflict of interest precluding him
19 from presiding over Dow's case by failing to affirmatively assert he had no conflict. Dow does 20 not specify what this apparent conflict might be.

21 Dow first argued Judge Leighton was unfit to serve as a federal judge a few months ago
22 in Dow v. Bank of America et al., 3:16-cv-5235-RBL. The Court dismissed Dow's claims
23 without prejudice because he had failed to file an amended complaint plausibly stating a claim
24

1 for relief and had refused to pay the Court's filing fee. Dow responded by filing a "Notice re
2 Impeachment of Ronald B. Leighton," arguing Judge Leighton had ignored Bank of America's
3 fraud, in violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct:

11 Dkt. #24.

12 Dow immediately filed a complaint in this case, which is even less intelligible than his 13 first complaint. On December 1, 2016, the Court granted Partial-Defendants' motion to dismiss
14 because rather than articulating a plausible claim for relief against them, Dow railed against the 15 banking industry and the government generally. The Court warned him it would dismiss his 16 remaining claims unless he paid the filing fee or applied to proceed in forma pauperis within 14
17 days.

18 Dow responded by filing a notice of appeal and a letter requesting Judge Leighton's
19 removal. His appeal appears to concern his first case because he argues its dismissal
20 demonstrates Judge Leighton's unfitness to serve:

1 Case No. 3:16-cv-05812-RBL APPEAL, is requested to be filed. Please also,
 2 forward the precise (process) /e paperwork, to move the proper Court in grievances for
 3 the Judicial Fitness Committee | Commission. And, the APPEAL to see the Summons
 4 also in the first Case, served due process - rule of law: Judge Leighton (Leighton) did
 5 note Case 3:16-cv-05235-RBL. ALL parties are required to Appear, due process law.
 6 See Exhibit Amendments 5TH and 14TH. Dismissal via a pauper form, dishonors the U.S.
 7 Constitution's right to challenge those who-whom have committed the crimes - that I am
 8 in the Court to receive. JUSTICE. Leighton omitted addressing Fraud on the Court (a 9 filing of another person's Bankruptcy). And, Conflicts of Interest to-date have not been 10 fully disclosed. Leighton does not pass the Constitutional Muster. I have specified
 11 an Article III Court. Thank you.

12 Dkt. 22. His letter, which the Ninth Circuit forwarded to this Court, contains much of the same
 13 information and asks for Judge Leighton's removal. In it, Dow additionally argues Judge
 14 Leighton is prejudiced against him because (1) Judge Leighton did not cite to a Gonzaga Law
 15 Review article and (2) did not affirmatively state he had no conflicts of interest.

16 A federal judge should recuse himself if "a reasonable person with knowledge of all the 17 facts would conclude that the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned." 28 U.S.C.
 18 §144; see also 28 U.S.C. § 455; Yagman v. Republic Insurance, 987 F.2d 622, 626 (9th Cir.
 19 1993). This is an objective inquiry concerned with whether there is the appearance of bias, not 20 whether there is bias in fact. See Preston v. United States, 923 F.2d 731, 734 (9th Cir. 1992); see
 21 also United States v. Conforte, 624 F.2d 869, 881 (9th Cir. 1980). Under the Local Rules of this
 22 District, a motion for recusal is addressed first to the presiding judge, and if the judge does not
 23 recuse voluntarily, the matter is referred to the chief judge for review. See LCR 3(e). This Court
 24 therefore considers Dow's motion in the first instance.

25 Dow has not demonstrated that a reasonable person would question Judge Leighton's
 26 impartiality. He has identified no specific (or general) conflict or bias. He instead grieves the 27 Court's dismissal of his claims, which he argues supports a finding of prejudice and unfitness. A
 28 reasonable person would not conclude the Court's citing to sources more persuasive than a Law

1 Review article and its silence about non-existent conflicts of interest demonstrate prejudice or
2 lack of ability. Nor would a reasonable person conclude the Court's decision to dismiss Dow's
3 claims for failure to pay the filing fee, after repeatedly instructing him to do so, suggests bias
4 against Dow. Accordingly, the Court will not recuse itself from this case voluntarily. Dow's
5 Motion for Recusal [Dkt. ##21, 25] is DENIED. Under LCR 3(e), this Matter is referred to Chief
6 Judge Martinez for review.

7 Dated this 29th day of December, 2016.
